

When purchasing a memorial, whether for yourself or a loved one gone before us, it is important to get everything correct to make sure it is a lasting and meaningful tribute. In order to do this we have put together this guide to help you through the process.

Getting Started

Who is this memorial for?

Which cemetery will the monument be located?

Does the cemetery have specific rules that need to be followed in regards to your memorial?

What funeral home (if any) handled the funeral arrangements?

Cemetery Information

While this information is very helpful it is not required when purchasing a memorial. This information can be obtained by us if you prefer.

What is the lot number or lot location? _____

What side of the lot will the memorial be placed? N E S W

What direction will the memorial face when installed? N E S W

When facing the memorial, who is to the left/right? (For companion memorials) _____

Memorial Guide

What type of memorial are you looking for?

Individual Companion Estate Pet Civic Veterans Other

What style would you like for your memorial?

Flat Upright Slant Bevel Bench Other

What would you like your memorial to be made out of?

Granite Marble Bronze Other

What shape would you like? (Feel free to draw if you like)

What color would you like your memorial to be? (This list is a general list, not meant to be specific)

Brown Black Grey Blue Pink Green Red White

Design Guide

Ultimately these questions help you to answer the main question.

"What do you want on the memorial?"

What is the family heritage? (Ethnicity, historical information, genealogy) _____

What kind of religious belief? (Religion, denomination, roles) _____

What was done for work, hobbies, interests, or sports? _____

What sort of accomplishments? (Job, memorable events, social, civic contributions) _____
